

'Am I Missing Something?'

Part 1 Arts Foundation Course, East Devon

A guide to unwrapping and decoding art throughout the ages

Join us for a journey of discovery as we help you to unwrap, decode, understand and appreciate the art and artists who have made their mark on history.

This new course provides an introduction and analysis – a veritable smorgasbord – of artistic styles, movements and media.

Each session we will be taking an in-depth look at a specific artistic theme.

Tutors: Geri Parlby and Jeni Fraser

Feb 27th - A Visual Analysis Primer - How artists use colour (space, shape, form) to create meaning in works of art. This will teach you visual analysis skills to see beyond the surface and gain insight into the artist's programme of creation - Jeni

March 13th - Gods, Goddesses & Heroes – How to recognise them in art and understand their stories - Geri

March 20th - Scotland the Brave! – Scottish art from its Celtic beginnings to the Colourists of the 20th century, and beyond - Jeni

March 27th - Windows to Heaven 1 – A history of Stained Glass Windows from the Venerable Bede to Middle Ages - Geri

April 3rd - Angels, Saints and Virgins – The colourful and subversive art of Hispanic South America and Mexico - Geri
